

While there are more male than female members of AACE International, AACE's Women in Project Controls Committee is a group, primarily made up of women, to help address the needs of AACE's women members. While the types of services provided by AACE International are standard to all members, regardless of gender, we try to gear those services with a feminine twist.

AACE International provides a wealth of resources for all members that will save you time and money. Through AACE, you will stay informed about the complexities of the cost and management profession - plus you will have access to discounts on technical resources, educational opportunities, certification programs, publications, insurance, and more!

"AACE has been a tremendous asset in my career. The certification program has allowed me to demonstrate a level of professional accomplishment that gives me and my employer credibility."

-Marlene M. Hyde CCE
