

It's About Time...

Join AACE International and gain access to a wealth of resources that will save you time and money! You'll stay informed about the complexities of the cost and management profession -- plus you'll have access to discounts on educational programs, publications, insurance and more!

It's About Information...

Visit AACE's website, www.aacei.org, and locate thousands of technical papers and publications at the Online Bookstore. AACE's database is keyword searchable for quickly locating appropriate reference articles. Check out AACE's employment page where members can post resumes at no additional cost.

AACE offers numerous distance learning courses on estimating and project management. The AACE Approved Educational Provider program helps maintain high quality development courses and providers. AACE also holds many seminars throughout the year.

AACE is an advocate for education. AACE annually awards scholarships to college and graduate students.

Join cost and management practitioners from around the world to learn, network, and expand your career at AACE International's Annual Meeting. With over 100 technical presentations and seminars by global experts in the cost and management field as well as networking and social events, the Annual Meeting is a world-class event.

It's About Resources...

Cost Engineering Journal - AACE International's monthly publication features cost estimating, project control, economic and financial analysis, planning and scheduling, cost engineering, and project management technical articles for cost professionals around the world. Through the mail or via the AACE International website, the Cost Engineering journal is a great resource for members.

AACE's Virtual Library - The Virtual Library is a fully searchable database that contains over 40 years of the Association's full-text technical articles available electronically in Adobe Acrobat (PDF) format. The Virtual Library will continue to expand as newly published articles are scanned and added to the library.

Technical Development - Increase your knowledge and expertise by joining one of AACE International's many technical committees, subcommittees, and Special Interest Groups (SIG's) at no additional cost to members. Discuss industry problems with your peers or help experts develop new and improved techniques and practices for the profession.

The Bookstore - Purchase all the leading estimating and cost management books and CD's, as well as Professional Practice Guides and Annual Meeting Transactions online 24 hours a day.

It's About Networking...

Expand your contacts through AACE International. Attend AACE local section or Annual Meetings for interesting speakers, informational tours, social dinners and much more. The Membership Directory is an excellent source for a list of contact information on thousands of members. Join one of our many technical committees and the AACE Forums -- a great resource! Plus, the price is right -- they are free to all AACE members!

It's About Excellence...

AACE's Certified Cost Consultant (CCC), Certified Cost Engineer (CCE), Certified Cost Technician (CCT), Certified Forensic Claims Consultant (CFCC), Certified Estimating Professional (CEP), Certified Portfolio, Program, & Project Manager (C3PM), Earned Value Professional (EVP), and Planning and Scheduling Professional (PSP) certification programs are third-party credentials that are recognized as signifying specialized cost and management capabilities. The CCC/CCE, CCT, EVP, and PSP programs are independently accredited by the Council of Engineering & Scientific Specialty Boards and the International Cost Engineering Council. AACE certifications are a recognized credible standard in the cost management field.

"I owe every employment opportunity I've had in the second half of my career to acquaintances I've made or credentials I've obtained since I became involved in AACE. And the wonderful thing is that the more time and effort I spend, the more rewarding it is for me, in terms of new knowledge, new and renewed acquaintances, and personal opportunities."
